Commendations

What is a commendation?

A commendation may address any event that you deem noteworthy on the part of the police employee. This may range from courtesy or compassion to significant heroic acts.

All commendations are formally documented and the involved police employee is notified. A commendation only takes a few minutes to write or communicate and can go a long way to let personnel know how you feel about them and their service.

Commendations may also be made directly to the Office of Internal Affairs during normal business hours by phone, mail, or email:
